News From the Parish Office:

A message from Fr. Jegan

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ
Peace of Christ!

We, St. Martin's are so blessed in many ways as a parish and as a community grown with long history of faith tradition. As I am learning about the history of our Parish and our faith tradition, I am grateful to God that He chose me to serve at this Parish and rejoice in the Lord. The history of who we are and how faith has nurtured us and made us spiritually sound is so important for us to see our future, thus our history and our past Spiritual memories are strengths and roots for our community. We called not to forget that, so that we remain faithful and grateful to God and to our Parish community. Jesus calls us to build the kingdom of God in love, peace, faithfulness, charity and forgiveness out of our weaknesses, imperfections and brokenness. A well-known legend has persisted from earliest times. As deacon in Rome, St. Lawrence was charged with the responsibility for the material goods of the Church, and the distribution of alms to the poor. When Lawrence knew he would be arrested like the pope, he sought out the poor, widows, and orphans of Rome and gave them all the money he had on hand, selling even the sacred vessels of the altar to increase the sum. When the prefect of Rome heard of this, he imagined that the Christians must have considerable treasure. He sent for Lawrence and said, "You Christians say we are cruel to you, but that is not what I have in mind. I am told that your priests offer in gold, that the sacred blood is received in silver cups, that you have golden candlesticks at your evening services. Now, your doctrine says you must render to Caesar what is his. Bring these treasures—the emperor needs them to maintain his forces. God does not cause money to be counted: He brought none of it into the world with him—only words. Give me the money, therefore, and be rich in words."

St. Lawrence replied that the Church was indeed rich. "I will show you a valuable part. But give me time to set everything in order and make an inventory." After three days, he gathered a great number of blind, lame, maimed, leprous, orphaned, and widowed persons and put them in rows. When the prefect arrived, Lawrence simply said, "These are the treasure of the Church."

We build God's kingdom through our time, talents, spiritual and material blessings here in our Parish Community. I would like to welcome the missionary priest in this weekend to our Parish. May God guide us to help them in their needs so that together we all build God's kingdom here on this earth!

To be the witness for His love,
Fr. Jegan.
